I. Mission Statement

The Audit Committee (Committee) of Golden State Farm Credit, ACA (Association) is established by and reports to the Board of Directors (Board) to assist the Board in fulfilling its fiduciary and oversight responsibilities and to comply with FCA Regulations.

The mission of the Committee is to oversee management's preparation of the report to shareholders; review the impact of any significant accounting and auditing developments; review accounting policy changes related to preparation of financial statements; and review annual and quarterly reports prior to release.

The Committee also reviews and supervises the external and internal audit functions, and oversees the Association's system of internal controls related to preparation of financial reports, including controls relating to the institution's compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

II. Membership

The Committee shall consist of at least three directors, including all directors designated by the Board to be financial experts. All members should be knowledgeable in at least one of the following: public and corporate finance, financial reporting and disclosure, or accounting procedures.

The Board Chairperson shall have the responsibility of appointing all members of the Committee following the annual reorganization of the Board. The intent is that, each year, the Committee will have one new member. A newly elected director whose predecessor served on the Committee will assume that position on the Committee until the Board Chair makes Committee appointments. Any Board member may attend Committee Meetings.

Every Committee member must be free from any relationship that in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgement as a Committee member.

III. Terms of Office

The term of office for each position on the Committee shall be for one year. The Board, upon recommendation of the Committee may remove any Committee member at any time.

IV. Officers

The Committee will select a Committee Chair and Vice Chair from within its membership during the annual Committee restructure.

V. Voting and Quorum

Quorum. A majority of the Committee members shall constitute a quorum.

Voting. Voting on Committee matters shall be on a one member-one vote basis. When a quorum is present, the vote of a majority of the Committee members present shall constitute the action or decision of the Committee.

VI. Meetings

The Committee will meet at least quarterly, with authority to convene additional meetings as circumstances require as determined by the Chairperson. Typically, the Committee will hold six meetings during a given calendar year. The Committee will invite members of management, auditors, or others to attend meetings and provide pertinent information, as necessary.

Meeting agendas will be prepared in consultation with the Chair or Vice Chair and provided in advance to members, along with appropriate briefing materials. The Committee may, at times, handle duties and responsibilities of the Committee in concert with the Board during, before, or after Board meetings.

Minutes of all Committee meetings will be prepared and approved by the Committee and will be retained in accordance with the Association's record retention schedule.

VII. Resources

The Association is responsible for providing monetary and nonmonetary resources to the Committee, as necessary and requested (for example to pay for expert advisors, legal counsel, administrative expenses, etc.). A two-thirds majority vote of the full Board is required to deny the Committee's request for resources.

VIII. Duties

The Committee must report only to the Board. In its capacity as a committee of the Board, the Committee is responsible for the following:

A. Financial Reports

- The Committee must oversee management's preparation of the report to shareholders;
- Review the impact of any significant accounting and auditing developments;
- Review accounting policy changes relating to preparation of financial statements; and
- Review and approve annual and quarterly reports prior to issuance.

Evidence of the Committee's agreement or disagreement with a financial policy, procedure, or report must be recorded in the minutes.

B. External Auditors

- The Committee will determine the appointment, compensation, and retention of external auditors issuing audit reports of the institution;
- Review the external auditor's work;
- Give prior approval for any non-audit services performed by the external auditors, except the Committee may not approve those non-audit services specifically prohibited by FCA regulation; and
- Ensure that all qualified public accountants conducting the Association's audit are independent, qualified, and reputable and that the accountants maintain high standards of honesty, integrity, and impartiality in the performance of their services.

The external auditor must report directly to the Committee.

C. Internal Controls Over Financial Reporting

- The Committee will oversee the institution's system of internal controls relating to preparation of financial reports, including controls relating to compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

D. Internal Audit

- All internal audit functions of the Association are subject to Committee review and supervision.

Internal Audit Department Purpose, Authority, and Responsibility

Purpose. The Internal Audit (IA) Department of the Association serves as an independent function to examine and evaluate the Association's activities as a service to the Board and management by providing Internal Audit services including Risk Assessment, direct audits, third-party review oversight, consultation, and other services as prescribed herein. The IA Department will furnish the Board and Association management with analyses, recommendations, counsel, and information concerning activities reviewed. The IA Department will support the Association in its achievement of business objectives, risk management, and mission.

Authority. The Vice President of Internal Audit (VPIA) reports administratively to the CEO and functionally to the Audit Committee of the Board. In conducting assigned duties and responsibilities, the VPIA has access to records, personnel, and physical properties relevant to the performance of engagements.

Responsibility. The VPIA has the overall responsibility for coordinating the Internal Audit service to the Association. Included within this service are the following duties:

- Develop and implement an annual Audit Plan using an appropriate risk-based methodology.
- Identify and report to management areas of noncompliance with the Association's policies, industry standards, regulations, and laws.
- Make appropriate recommendations and follow up to assure that recommendations are implemented on a timely basis.
- Coordinate with external auditors, third-party auditors, CoBank, and the Farm Credit Administration to provide a comprehensive review and evaluation of significant Association operations.

E. Whistleblower Program

- The Committee will receive, handle, and investigate accounting, internal control, and auditing matters communicated through the Association's Whistleblower Program.

F. Internal Audit Program Quality Assurance Review

- Every 3 to 5 years the Association's internal audit program must be subject to an independent quality assurance review to ensure that the processes and activities are ethical, effective, and add value to the Association. The Committee will ultimately be responsible for hiring and supervising the quality assurance reviewer.

G. Committee Self-Evaluation

- At least annually, a self-evaluation analysis will be performed by the Committee that details the Committee's strengths, weaknesses, developmental needs, and highlights any potential changes to membership needed.

H. Risk Assessment and Audit Planning

- The Committee will develop a thorough understanding of the Association's risk profile and will be involved in the development of the risk profile. The Committee will ensure that the Association's risk assessments adequately address all significant business activities, appropriately identify and prioritize risks, and are completed in accordance with institution guidelines.

- The Committee will review and approve the Association's internal audit plan on an annual basis.

I. Audit Reporting

- The Committee will develop expectations of quality, content, and timeliness for all audit reports and ensure that management has established audit reporting processes that identify and meet these expectations. The Committee will also receive, from the internal audit department and/or external auditors, regular updates on audit progress.

J. Audit, Examination, and Review Oversight

- The Committee will oversee the institution's audit, examination, and review activities including, but not limited to:
 - CPA financial statement audit
 - ICFR audit
 - Internal operations review (IOR)
 - Internal credit review (ICR)
 - FCA examination(s)
 - CoBank examination(s)
 - Information technology and data security audits
 - Appraisal practices review
 - Other internal audits (for example, business plan audit, payroll audit, business continuity plan audit, etc.)

IX. Audit Committee Training and Onboarding

On an annual basis, or more frequently if needed, a schedule of required and optional training will be prepared by management and approved by the Committee. All training offered will be reviewed by the Committee to ensure that it meets the Committee's quality standards and needs (e.g. accounting, finance, and financial reporting).

When a new Committee member takes their place on the committee, they will be required to complete a specific onboarding program in a timely manner. The onboarding program will be reviewed by the Committee, at least annually, to confirm that it sufficiently meets the Committee's needs and quality standards.

X. Committee Charter

This Charter will be reviewed periodically in accordance with the Association's policy review schedule.

This Charter will be posted on the "public" area of the Association website and copies made available in printed form upon request.

XI. Reporting Requirements

The Committee will:

- A. Make regular reports to the Board on the routine discharge of its responsibilities under this Charter.
- B. Ensure that the Board is kept informed of substantial or exceptional matters or developments pertaining to major areas of its responsibility and, if decision making is involved or a recommendation is developed, report on the process followed, the options considered, and the rationale used to support the Committee's decision or recommendation.
